

How to Be a Good Ancestor:

Collecting and Preserving Family History, Stories, Photographs, and Artifacts

Saturday, November 13, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Oberlin Depot, 240 S. Main Street.

(Overflow parking on the north side of South Street and across South Main/S.R. 58.)

This two-part workshop is led by Oberlin Heritage Center professional staff members Pat Holsworth and Prue Richards. All attendees will receive a folder of resource materials to take home. Pre-registration is required, and seating is limited to 25 participants.

Part I. 10 a.m. to 12 noon. This session addresses proper care of artifacts, documents, textiles and photographs.

Lunch. 12 noon to 1 p.m. Lunch is included if you attend the all-day workshop. It is an optional add-on, for a cost of $10, if you attend only Part I or Part II.

Part II. 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. This session provides guidance on preserving family histories, genealogy and oral history.

Individual follow-up consultation. Included in the price of the all-day workshop is an optional half-hour appointment, scheduled at a later date with either of the presenters.
